2006 PR SUMMIT

“WHAT A ROUND-UP!”

FROM THE DESK OF:

Roger Smith
President & CEO
American Income Life

The PR Summit — What a Round-Up!

This month we are focusing on the PR Summit which took place at the end of January. This was a great informational session, and we had plenty of enthusiastic Public Relations Representatives here to make the entire experience more than worth while. This year's theme was "blazing a trail to the future," and that is exactly what we did over these two powerful days.

At American Income and National Income, we pride ourselves on being able to give our Agents, Managers, and PR Representatives the tools they need to achieve all their personal and financial dreams, and all of the participating Representatives had the opportunity to share ideas and strategies on what works best in their territories. This year's Summit took that goal and expanded on its scope.

At this year's Summit, we set the course we are blazing for 2006 and had the opportunity to expand on the marketing philosophies we are currently using in the markets we already serve. The Summit forum also gave us the platform to discuss branching out into new markets as well.

All in all, I feel the Summit was a great success because we had more than 130 Representatives present at this year's event. We are already seeing the fruits of our vision and the PR Reps' labor becoming a reality because I get word almost daily that many of our attendees have picked up TGs or mailings from organizations or markets they previously had not worked with or even approached. The PR team has taken the "just think big" philosophy and are proving how "big" they can set their goals. The Summit helped provide these Reps with the tools and confidence to go after these new organizations and markets. In the first two weeks of this month, we have already received more TGs than we normally get in an entire month. The number of schools that are being contacted regarding our Child Safe program has been phenomenal as well. In the end, we expect the results to just keep getting bigger and better throughout the remainder of the year. We applaud all of the PR Reps for their efforts and results.

You can read more about what took place at this year's Summit by turning to Pages 12 and 13.

I just want everyone to know it is more than satisfying to see we are pulling together to make lead flow a priority in Agency operations. The PR Summit is really just the tip of the iceberg when it comes to our 2006 PR focus.

There were so many beneficial, shared experiences when it came to lead generation and opportunity. It is hard to believe that a little over a month later, we are already seeing the results. I certainly believe that it was this "coming together" to hear from seasoned veterans as well as key staff which set the tone for our future — it definitely blazed a trail and is a great example of big thinking! Given that, I want to thank everyone who participated and donated their time in making this year's Summit a huge success.

At American Income and National Income we have a great team, and I feel we have the best of the best on our side. Having said that, I believe our opportunities are wide open for the future. Again, the success of the PR Summit and the success we have seen thus far this year is just the tip of the iceberg. I am looking forward to great things in 2006!

Just think big!

Thank You, AIL/NILICO!

We recently received thank you letters from The International Association of Machinists (IAM) and The United Food and Commercial Workers International Union (UFCW). IAM wished to thank us for our support for Guide Dogs of America and our $5,000 contribution to the 25th Annual William W. Winpisinger Charity Banquet. UFCW thanked us for our donation made to the Wake-Up Wal-Mart Campaign. You can view these letters online at www.ailife.com/main/Letters/Letter_List.

Removal of Maximum Advance Limit

We encourage every Agent to make insurance sales based on the needs of the customer and making sure the customer has sufficient insurance coverage to protect their family. Our premium size per life application has been increasing over the last few years, and we anticipate it to increase even further with the development of different sales packages which would benefit the working families we service. Because of this increasing premium size per application, we are removing the maximum advance or pre-paid commission limit of $600 per application that we have administered for several years.

Beginning with new business applications with app and issue dates of March 15, 2006, the advance limit will no longer apply. All other advance and production guidelines will remain the same. Please contact the Home Office if you have any questions.

No Limit To Their Success

It's true! More people are realizing that AMS provides fantastic and endless opportunities. Below, some of our newest MGAs share their stories, tips for success, and feelings on how AMS got them to where they are now.

Wes Elder
The Steve Friedlander Agency
Promoted December 2005

"You must have a commitment to the people, the Company, and the products. The most important thing in our industry is good service, and we should approach every day with that in mind. It is crucial to do exactly what you say you will and go see the people. That's what it is all about!"

David Faraway
The Rick Altig Agency
Promoted December 2005

"AMS is an amazing opportunity that really gives you room to grow. There is no cap to how successful you can be — just do your best because only you can hold you back. As long as you stay persistent and constantly try to improve yourself, this system gives you the chance to rise to the top."

Jim Read
The Altig-Traboulay Agency
Promoted December 2005

"Be willing to learn. Always remember that your Managers have been where you are now, and you should listen to their advice and suggestions. Don't be afraid to ask questions, because no one knows everything. It's when we keep open minds and work together that we truly succeed."

Nicole Winn
The Altig-Orlovic Agency
Promoted December 2005

"Stick with it! There will be difficult weeks, but they pass quickly. Just don't quit, and remember to keep your spirits up. A positive attitude will get you everywhere, especially when you couple it with hard work and persistence. Your activity and attitude are always under your control."

Philip Anderson
The Rick Altig Agency
Promoted January 2006

"Confidence is a key element to success. You should truly believe that you are capable of achievement. Keep a strong work ethic as well and put 100 percent effort into everything. And finally, have fun with your job. Our Company gives us the opportunity to really enjoy what we do."

Preston Foster
The Mark Hancock Agency
Promoted January 2006

"The only way I can describe AMS is 'awesome.' This system enables people to feel the value of the work they put in every day. You benefit from your own actions and your own hard work. Normal promotions do not work like this at all. You really get to make your own success with AIL."

Liza Garcia
The Eric Neal Agency
Promoted January 2006

"The hierarchy is designed to make each Agency great. Everyone is doing their part to not only benefit themselves, but to benefit one another as well. It gives everyone the incentive to work even harder. The AMS system really provides a fantastic opportunity for everyone to succeed."

Salvatore Giacchi
The Eric Giglione Agency
Promoted January 2006

"When I started working with the Giglione Agency, I was told to focus on five tasks: recruiting, interviewing, training, motivating, and selling. When you are dedicated to achieving at these tasks, success comes easily. Be persistent, and do not quit on yourself."

Paul Mahoney
The Bill Heath Agency
Promoted January 2006

"The trick is to be very goal-oriented. You need to be able to not only make goals but follow through on them as well. The drive to complete your goals will give you the diligence, motivation, and ambition needed to stick with it and be a success at everything else you do."

Maijargal Sukhbaatar
The Gleb Ostrovsky Agency
Promoted January 2006

"Be strong! When you first start, the first two or three months will be the most difficult, but stick with it. You will find that if you listen to your Managers and put a lot of dedication into your business, it will become easier. With time and dedication, you will be a huge success."

Moswen Taylor
The Mark Hancock Agency
Promoted January 2006

"I have never seen anything like the AMS system — people only dream of being able to succeed this quickly. It is overwhelming. I owe a lot to the support of everyone at my Agency, especially Patrice, John, and Mark, because they have encouraged me to do my best and succeed."

Congratulations!

2006 PR SUMMIT - "WHAT A ROUND-UP!"

Our second PR Summit was held in Waco in January. The goal of the Summit was to educate and share valuable information with our PR Reps in order to ensure their success in the marketplace. Training was led by members of the PR Council, which included Denise Bowyer, Debbie Enstedt, Al Wall, Brenda DiSomma, Chuck Hill, Joe Galusha, Laurie Onasch, Malka Arony, Mark Gagliardi, Rona Pileggi Spano, and Vivian Dwyer.

In total, 130 PR Representatives were in attendance for the two day session. Almost 60 new PR Representatives attended an additional day of Basic Training which was held the day prior to the Summit meeting. Topics such as American Income and National Income, involvement in the marketplace, the board presentation, customer service, time management, as well as PR reports and accounting were covered. Overall, the new Reps' favorite part of the day long class was the breakout session where they were coached on their presentations by the PR Council as well as two "volunteers," George Farenthold of New York and Bill Verbeten of Wisconsin. The day ended with a very nice reception at the Hilton Hotel.

The theme for the Summit was "blaze a trail to the future." The first day opened with a hilarious slide presentation by Kathy Lockhart, Director of Public Relations Administration. The tongue-in-cheek narrative told the story of how a territorial governor, Roger Smith, recruits sheriff Scott Smith, and a gun-toting Denise Bowyer, to bring peace and prosperity to the Old West. The presentation was very amusing, thanks to photographs of AIL management and many of the PR Representatives that Kathy superimposed on images of Old West characters. Judge Debbie Gamble in her long wig will be forever etched in all of our minds. After an opening speech by AIL founder, Bernard Rapoport, the day was spent on labor-related information and PR Rep compensation changes for 2006. The day ended with dinner at the Ridgewood Country Club.

The second, and final day, of the Summit was devoted entirely to marketing in non-union markets. . .credit unions, associations, and using Child Safe to access working families. With only 40 percent of our business coming from the union market, it becomes inherent to provide as much knowledge and teaching on these other opportunities. It was refreshing to hear veteran PR Reps, having traditionally worked in the labor union market, positively comment on the training sessions and vowing to expand their efforts into these other markets. The Summit ended with a traditional Texas barbeque held at the Texas Rangers Hall of Fame, complete with line dancing and the chance to dress up and be photographed in Old West costumes — we are still waiting to see the photos of certain PR gentlemen in saloon girl garb!

Watch Us Grow!

"I believe if you are at the right place at the right time anyone has the opportunity to become a significant part of this historic growth strategy."

"Forgetting what is behind and straining for what is ahead, we press on toward the goal to win the prize for which we have been called. Basically, new offices equal increased production."

"This new Child Safe division gave us the opportunity to do something new. It gave us the opportunity to think big and think outside of the box."

"This new office is in a very remote region. The people of Cape Breton weren't aware of us, but now they are. Our production has doubled and our recruiting has tripled."

Congratulations on making this opportunity a reality! We wish you all luck in expanding your business in the communities you are now serving!

Recruiting for Ownership

It is an exciting time at American Income and National Income — time I know will be marked by incredible production growth. How can I be so confident? Because I believe that great companies are not made up of products, recruiting systems, lead generation systems, and training programs. They are made up of great people, who in turn make those systems perform at high levels.

In my travels, I get to experience first-hand the goals and dreams of our field force. Individually and collectively I find you have taken to heart the company motto “just think big.” That leads me to the title of this article, “Recruiting for Ownership.”

To accomplish anything big that will add meaning to your life will require the help of other people. You cannot do it alone. If you have an Agency building contract at any level, it all starts with you. Ask yourself, am I directly coding two people a month to guarantee the growth of my Agency? If not, why?

I find that the main reason most people are not recruiting at an extremely high level is because they are not passionate enough about their goals and dreams. Are your goals and dreams big enough to get passionate about?

We want to help you — yes, you — open and take ownership of new offices where you want to open them. Start by asking your SGA where they need more offices. Let them know where you would like to be, and work together to achieve common goals.

I know to some of you, opening an office and taking ownership of your opportunity may seem like a mountain looming in front of you where the top seems like it would take too much effort to achieve. You might be right. However, we need mountains in our lives. Life should not be flat and routine. We need high mountains that take us to great heights and give us an experience that stays with us long after we have come down from that mountain. Nowadays, we are inclined to settle for small hills now and then because it takes too long and is too much work to climb a mountain.

We, as leaders, have a tremendous opportunity to succeed by better engaging our key people and motivating them through ongoing dialogue, clear communication, and a shared investment in helping their careers move forward. In that spirit, please feel free to e-mail me at rfalvo@aillife.com (remember to cc: your SGA) with where you would like to open an office — today, tomorrow, or someday. I would love to hear from you.

Always remember: Fortune Favors the Bold!

FROM THE DESK OF:

Scott SmithExecutive Vice President
American Income Life

You Have a Hard Job!

Deal with it. There, I said it.

If you have heard me speak at one of your Agency meetings or at the Leadership Development School, you have probably heard me tell the story from years ago when I went looking for an easy job where I could make lots of money. I searched high and low. I found some easy jobs, but they didn't pay a lot. I found some high paying jobs, but they didn't seem too easy. I even found a couple of opportunities that seemed like they would be quite difficult but actually didn't pay much — the worst of all combinations. Basically, a choice needed to be made, and if I was to make some serious money, a hard job was a must.

All of you made that choice as well, and I know you have difficult jobs. The reason I know this is because you have a high-income opportunity at American Income and National Income. No one will ever call you on Tuesday and say you must stop producing because it is looking like you may be heading for too large an advance check on Friday. You are not limited to a salary. You chose an environment where you will be paid on your contributions, personal production, and overrides on those looking to you for training and leadership.

With American Income and National Income, you are in the right place at the right time. The theme of this month's Spotlight is a real benchmark at AIL and NILICO. You have read about the new era and our ambitious plans to significantly grow our Public Relations team — double the size of your Agency's PR Team, provide assistance in leadership to the newer SGAs, and assign mentors to the new hires. Not only will this provide the foundation of increased lead growth in new markets for your Agency, but it marks a special sharing of resources by the SGA body and the Company alike. While we often focus on those Agencies or new hires who receive the assignment of a talented director or an experienced mentor, let's not forget the SGA and the Agency who have generously allowed their talented team members to help other offices gain from their wisdom. That's real teamwork!

Twenty-five years ago, only a few leads were generated for the sales force. As the lead program became more refined and we ultimately positioned ourselves to average over 900,000 leads as a Company for the past several years, many people took advantage of this growth, and those people made a lot of money. This makes your timing perfect because we are going to start generating some incredible lead increases, which means increased Agent counts, more production, and more leadership opportunities. The Best Performers Practices Presentation Manual (AC-58) has been distributed to your office, which will help with this new lead generation by training you on how to sell to non-union leads. This is just one of the ways we plan to help every Agency grow.

Together, we have some great opportunities in front of us. Laying the foundation in the first fifty years did not come easy for the leaders of your Company, and it will not be easy for us either. But the opportunity for financial prosperity has never been brighter.

It's a tough job. Deal with it. Be a part of something special. You are in the right place at the right time.
